

Invitation

Pinsent Masons and Keating Chambers Construction Law Conference

Johannesburg, 23-24 October 2019

Following the success of the inaugural Construction Law Conference in 2018, Pinsent Masons and Keating Chambers will be co-hosting a two-day conference in Johannesburg to discuss construction law issues in an African context.

The experience of Pinsent Masons and Keating Chambers will be combined with external guest speakers to discuss current construction law issues in Africa. The conference is aimed at engineers, contract managers, in-house legal and others involved in the operational aspects of the infrastructure and energy sectors. Local (non-international) law firms are also invited to attend.
